Dear Members of Pikwakanagan,

There is an extremely high spike in COVID -19 cases locally and regionally. The number of active cases of COVID-19 in Renfrew County has more than doubled since December 2, 2021. The Renfrew County and District Health Unit dashboard update for December 6, 2021, reports 53 active cases.

There has been an outbreak in our neighbouring Algonquin community of Kitigan Zibi Anishinabeg. Chief Dylan Whiteduck says there is an outbreak linked to eight cases in the community as of December 6, 2021, temporarily closing daycares and schools. There are other First Nations that currently have outbreaks.

Health Officials are pausing the Reopening Plans for Ontario. This extended pause is based on the concerns about the spike in COVID-19 cases, the new variant of concern – Omicron and a trend of increased hospitalizations and ICU admissions.

On behalf of the Council of the Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation, we ask that you please keep up with excellent COVID-19 precautions and be extra diligent about your travels and public engagements.

Pikwakanagan still remains at zero case counts. We cannot let our guards down.

Wash your hands

Use a face mask

Keep your distance.

Thank you for doing your part to keep Pikwakanagan COVID free.

Notice to Businesses

Re-Enforcing Public Health Safety Measures

Since November the province has put a pause on lifting restrictions/or Reopening Plan due to the increase in COVID-19 cases.

The newest virus known as Omicron is thought to be even more transmissible and has been detected across Canada and found locally in Ottawa. While Pikwakanagan maintains its zero-case count, other First Nation communities are being affected with an increase of outbreaks of COVID-19 cases.

Pikwakanagan continues to have a percentage of the population that is vulnerable including infants and children up to 11 years of age and those who are unvaccinated.

Pikwakanagan businesses are heavily trafficked areas encountering numerous customers daily. Many who may not be from Pikwakanagan or travelling from various locations.

Public Health Measures are required to be in place from all Pikwakanagan businesses.

Businesses should:

- Have a safety plan posted in plain sight visible for patrons
- Provide means for social distancing
- Wearing a mask indoors and when social distancing isn't possible
- Provide hand sanitizer for patrons
- Complete routine cleaning as required
- Passive screening – posted screening information
- Requesting Proof of Vaccination in appropriate settings
- Registering patrons

Businesses should review their COVID-19 processes and make improvements to ensure the safety of their employees and the community. Should a business require any assistance, do not hesitate to contact Health Services at 613-625-2259. Information can also be found at the following link. Reopening Ontario | Ontario.ca

Thank you for doing your part to keep Pikwakanagan COVID free.

TV SHOW FILMING IN PIKWAKANAGAN

There will be a Radio-Canada (French CBC) TV Series that will begin filming in Pikwakanagan in SPRING 2022! The television show name is Eaux Turbulentes (Troubled Water), which is a French language dramatic series that follows the storyline of an investigator who tries to solve mysterious murders that happen in Queensbury, a fictional city in Ontario. In this season, an investigation reveals disturbing information about a large residential development project that is provoking a lot of protests among Indigenous communities in northern Ontario, especially in Kapešiwiniw reserve, a fictional First Nation in Ontario that will be portrayed by Pikwakanagan.

As part of the filming, there will be opportunities for community members to be a part of the production in the following areas;

Some property owners will be contacted, requesting use of their property (land and/or home), to be used for filming. The property owners will be compensated should they agree.

An Open Casting Call will be held to allow the opportunity for community members to submit for a chance to fill these First Nation roles on the show! These acting opportunities will be for speaking roles, non-speaking roles, and background roles. All these roles will include compensation. Please know that these opportunities will only be open to those that are double vaccinated.

This is a tremendous opportunity to highlight the beauty of our community as well as providing the opportunity for any members with a passion for TV and Film.

Letters to property owners will be sent out in the coming weeks, and the Open Casting Call will be posted within the community (Newsletter, Social Media, Posters) in January 2022.
